

SOUTHERN WALES

Funded by
UK Government

Southern Wales is a great region to explore – for groups of all sizes, independent visitors of all ages, and for visitors from around the world.

Southern Wales has Cardiff, the capital of Wales at its heart with its museums, shopping, and wide range of hotels. Across the rest of the region we have heritage sites including Caerleon, the Roman Legionary Fortresses; Chepstow Castle, built just 1 year after the Norman invasion and Caerphilly Castle, the largest in Wales, along with over 30 other castles; industrial reminders like Big Pit National Coal Museum and A Welsh Mining Experience/Rhondda Heritage Park; as well as grand historic houses. There's also great walking and cycling opportunities across the hills and coastline, and adventure opportunities at ZipWorld Tower and across the lakes and rivers. We're also home to a wide range of local food and drink producers (including 6 vineyards that you can visit) and a variety of great lunch and dinner stops.

The Southern Wales team are here to help you create the perfect itinerary for your clients. We can help you find the most suitable places to stay, the best guide to bring your visit to life and those hidden gems that ensure that your clients have a truly memorable experience.

Do get in touch; we'll be happy to help in any way.
