Magwyr a Gwndy: Mynachod a Chorsydd

Mynachod

Saif gweddillion gweddol fawr o Dŷ'r Procuradur A o'r bedwaredd ganrif ar ddeg yn falch ym Magwyr. Y Procuradur, gŵr o awdurdod, oedd cynrychiolydd cyfreithiol y fynachlog a'i swydd ef oedd casglu'r rhenti a dyledion eraill, gan gynnwys degymau ar ran y fynachlog. Mae'n adeilad rhestradig gyda CADW a'r unig un o'i fath yng Nghymru.

Saif Eglwys y Santes Fair, Magwyr B uwchlaw'r corstir a'r ffordd i Aberwythel – hen borthladd diflan Magwyr. Fe'i gelwir yn "Cadeirlan y Gweunydd" ac fe'i sefydlwyd yn ôl y sôn yn y seithfed ganrif gan Cadwaladr Fendigais, yr olaf o blith "Brenhinoedd Prydain" a oedd yn Gymro adeg cyrchoedd y Sacsoniaid, ac fe'i datganwyd yn sant gan y Pab Sergius yn 688.

Adeiladwyd Eglwys bresennol y Santes Fair yng Ngwndy E yn y ddeuddegfed ganrif a'r drydedd ganrif ar ddeg, ond mae wedi'i hadeiladu ar seiliau eglwys flaenorol o'r chweched ganrif, a gyflwynwyd i Sant Gwyndaf a'i wraig Wyndaf, a dyna'r rheswm dros wahanol ynganiadau o Wndy ar hyd yr oesoedd – Gwyndaf, Wyndaf, Gwyndi, Woundy, Wendy ac Undy. Gwnaed y gloch gyfredol yn y tyred, dyddiedig 1350-80, gan gwmni o Fryste ac mae'n unigryw o ran ei steil. Mae'n 33 modfedd o hyd gyda'r arysgrif Virgi:Marie:Lavdes o amgylch y gwaelod. Fe gafodd ei hail hongian ym 1996 a bellach mae'n cael ei gweithredu'n electroneg.

Yn ôl y chwedl, cynhaliodd Duw a'r Diafol gystadleuaeth ar dop Mynydd Llwyd i weld pwy allai daflu carreg bellaf – glaniodd carreg y Diafol yn Rogiet (y maen hir) a glaniodd carreg Duw yn yr Aber – Ynys Denny C. Dywedir fod Mynydd Llwyd, Y Maen Hir ac Ynys Denny oll yn sefyll ar hyd llinell osod.

Y Gloch yn Eglwys y Santes Fair, Gwndy

Arbennig F yw'r gwarged mwyaf o gorstir a reolir yn draddodiadol ar Lefelau Gwent. Mae'r safle hwn yn cynnig cipolwg o'r gorffennol hynafol, gan gynnwys tystiolaeth o 10,000 o flynyddoedd o ddefnydd dynol. Mae cynllun cyfredol y ffosydd draenio yma yn dyddio o tua'r bedwaredd ganrif ar ddeg.

Edrychwch yn ofalus ac mae'n bosibl y byddwch yn gallu gweld dyfrgwn, rhegen y dŵr, teloriaid Cetti a theloriaid eraill, bras y gors, giachod, glas y dorlan, gwas y neidr prin, chwilog plymio. Mae hon yn ardal wych i wylio adar.

Mae hanes wedi ffurio'r ffordd y mae'r gors yn edrych heddiw. Credir bod yr helyg sy'n tyfu ar draws canol y gors wedi'u plannu gan fynachod, nid fel gwrychoedd, ond fel modd o groesi'r gors. Fe wnaethant osod canghennau a brigau helyg i'w stopio rhag suddo ar eu ffordd o Fferm Grange isaf i'r Priordy bob dydd. Dros amser mae'r helyg wedi blaguro er mwyn ffurffio'r llinell o helyg sydd i'w gweld heddiw.

A oeddech chi'n gwybod?

Arferai anifeiliaid crwydr gael eu cadw yn Ffald Gwndy D. Byddai Ceidwad y Ffald neu'r Pinder, yn casglu'r anifeiliaid hyn ac yn eu cadw'n ddiogel hyd nes iddynt gael eu casglu gan eu perchnogion a fyddai'n gorfol talu ffi. Amser maith yn ôl, weithiau byddai ffelonïaid a oedd yn cyflawni troseddau difrifol yn cael eu cadw yma yn y cyffion neu'r rhigodau. Yn aml byddai pregethwyr ymwelliadol yn galw a byddai pobl yn casglu o amgylch y Groes Garreg i wrando ar 'air Duw'. Mae gweddillion y groes i'w gweld hyd heddiw yn y Fynwent.

Byddai ffeiriau hefyd yn cael eu cynnal yn y ffald; cafodd da byw eu masnachu a'r di-waith eu llogi ar gyfer gwaith – fel arfer am gyfnodau o 3 blynedd. Yn ôl pob tebyg cafodd y Ffald ei defnyddio ddiwethaf yn yr 1880au.

Canfuwyd gweddillion adeilad Rhufeinig yn ystod adeiladu cae pêl-droed yng Ngwndy. Mae swm bach o grochenwaith ac asgwrn wedi'i adfer o'r adeilad ynghyd â thrif darn arian o 320-350 O.C.

Credir fod yr adeilad yn cynrychioli strwythur amaethyddol.

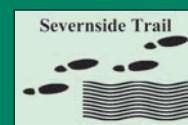

Cafodd arch Rufeinig yn cynnwys ysgerbwld ei datgladdu yn ystod cloddio sylfeini ar gyfer ystâd dai newydd yng Ngwndy. Mae'r arch wedi'i gwneud o Garreg Caerfaddon ac roedd dyddiad y gladdedigaeth yn ystod hanner olaf y 3edd neu'r 4edd ganrif.

Magor & Undy: Monks and Marshes

Monks

The sizeable remains of the 14th Century Procurator's House A still stands proudly in Magor. The Procurator, a man of some standing, was the legal representative of the monastery and it was his job to collect the rents and other dues, including tithes on behalf of the monastery. The CADW listed building is the only one of its kind in Wales.

St Mary's Church, Magor B stands above the fenland and the road to Aberwythel - Magor's long vanished port. It is known as "The Cathedral of the Moors" and was allegedly founded in the 7th Century by Cadwaladr Fendigais, last of the Welsh "Kings of Britain" at the time of the Saxon incursions, and declared a saint by Pope Sergius in 688.

The current St Mary's Church Undy E was built in the 12th and 13th Centuries, but is built on the foundations of an earlier 6th Century church, which was dedicated to St Gwyndaf and his wife Wyndaf, hence the pronunciations of Undy through the ages – Gwyndaf, Wyndaf, Gwyndi, Woundy, Wendy and Undy. The current bell in the turret, dated 1350 –80, was made by a Bristol firm and is unique in style. It is 33 inches long with the inscription Virgi:Marie:Lavdes around the base. It was rehung in 1996 and is now electronically operated.

Legend has it that God and the Devil held a competition on top of Gray Hill to see who could throw a stone the furthest – the Devil's stone landed in Rogiet (the standing stone) and God's stone landed in the Estuary – Denny Island C. Gray Hill, the Standing Stone and Denny Island are all said to stand along a lay line.

Marshes

Magor Marsh Nature Reserve and Site of Special Scientific Interest F is the largest remnant of traditionally managed fenland on the Gwent Levels. This site provides a glimpse of the ancient past, containing evidence of 10,000 years of human use. The present layout of the reens(ditches) here dates from about the fourteenth century

Look carefully and you might see otters, water rail, Cetti's Warbler and other warblers, reed bunting, snipe, kingfishers, rare dragonflies, diving beetles. This is a great bird watching area.

History has shaped the way the marsh looks today. The willows growing across the middle of the marsh are thought to have been planted by monks, not as a hedgerow, but as a means of crossing the marsh. They laid willow branches and twigs to stop them sinking on their way from Lower Grange Farm to the Priory everyday. Over time this willow has sprouted to make the line of willows you see today.

Did you know...?

Stray animals used to be held at Undy Pound D, the keeper of the pound or pinder, rounded up these animals and kept them secure until collected by their owners who would be charged a fee. Way back in time, felons committing serious crimes were sometimes confined here in the stocks or pillory. Often visiting preachers came and people would gather around the Stone Cross to hear 'the word of God'. The remains of the cross are still found in the Churchyard.

Fayres were also held at the pound; livestock was traded and the unemployed hired for work – usually for 3 year periods. The Pound was probably last used in the 1880's.

The remains of a roman building were found during the construction of a football pitch at Undy. A small quantity of pottery and bone has been retrieved from the building along with three coins from 320 – 350 AD. It is thought that the building represents an agricultural structure.

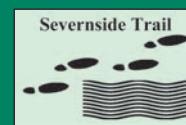

A roman coffin containing a skeleton, was unearthed while digging foundations for a new housing estate at Undy .The coffin is made of Bath Stone and the date of burial was during the latter half of the 3rd or 4th century.
