TREASURE TRAILS LLWYBRAU TRYSOR

TREASURE TRAIL TALES

Welcome to the Blaenavon World Heritage Site! Since the year 2000 this industrial landscape has been recognised as one of the world's top heritage treasures. This is because it is one of the very few places where you can follow the story of the industrial revolution. A story that was first carved into the landscape by an army of people, using little more than picks and shovels, some 200 years ago.

However, this industrial landscape does not reveal its secrets very easily so you will have to get out and discover its hidden gems for yourselves! To help you, we've created this series of 'Treasure Trails', each one with a tale to tell, treasure to find and challenges to complete along the way.

We hope you have fun exploring the Blaenavon World Heritage Site. By the time you've walked our trails you'll be an expert in reading the landscape, seeing it for what it really is, full of character and historical interest - a true testament to human endeavour.

STORÏAU TEITHIAU TRYSOR

Croeso i Safle Treftadaeth Byd Blaenafon! Ers y flwyddyn 2000 mae'r tirlun diwydiannol hwn wedi'i gydnabod yn un o drysorau pennaf treftadaeth y byd. - gwir brawf o ymdrechion dynol.

Puck's Tale

Follow me if you dare and I'll take you deep into the Clydach Gorge. The name's Puck. Some people say that the great bard William Shakespeare was inspired to write about me in a play he called 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' following a visit to the Gorge over 400 years ago. But I can tell you that I'm much older than that and I've seen all of the comings & goings. Be nice to me and I'll tell you.

It all kicked off around 250 years ago when they discovered the Gorge's hidden treasures. Iron ore, limestone, water for power and wood for making charcoal to fuel the furnaces. The fiery, smoke belching furnaces in which they made their iron. In the blink of an eye they transformed the Gorge. Gouging the earth with mines & quarries, stripping the hillsides of their ancient beech trees and lining the valley with tracks & tramroads. Some dream... more like a nightmare!

Then, as quickly as it came so it went. A whole industry made redundant by ever more clever engineering that took the iron-making elsewhere, leaving nature to reclaim the Gorge. Thankfully, the valley's steep sides saved the remaining beech trees from the axe and they are flourishing once more. So much so that they now form part of a National Nature Reserve.

Come on follow me and I'll show you the tell-tale signs of the Gorge's iron-making past. But be warned, I won't let your kind spoil my woodland home again. Stick to the paths and I won't lead you astray, I promise.

Stori Pwca

Mentrwch ddilyn fi ac mi af â chi'n ddwfn i Geunant Clydach. Pwca yw'r enw. Dywed rhai bod y bardd enwog William Shakespeare wedi cael ei ysbrydoli i ysgrifennu amdanaf mewn drama o'r enw 'Breuddwyd Nos Gŵyl Ifan' yn dilyn ymweliad â'r ceunant dros 400 mlynedd yn ôl. Ond clywch, rwyf yn henach o lawer na hynny ac rydw i wedi gweld yr holl fynd a dod, credwch chi fi. Byddwch yn garedig i fi ac fe gewch glywed mwy.

Dechreuodd y cyfan oll tua 250 o flynyddoedd yn ôl pan wnaethant ddarganfod trysorau cudd y ceunant; mwyn haearn, calchfaen, dŵr i gael pŵer a phren i wneud siarcol i fwydo'r ffrwneisi; y ffrwneisi tanllyd, myglyd a ddefnyddiwyd i wneud eu haearn. Mewn amrantiad, fe drawsnewidion nhw'r Ceunant. Cafnu'r pridd â'u pyllau glo a'u chwareli, tynnu'r coed ffawydd hynafol o'r llethrau a leinio'r cwm â thraciau a thramffyrdd. Breuddwyd wir... mwy fel hunllef!

Yna, fel chwinciad, fe ddiflannodd eto. Diwydiant cyfan yn mynd ar y clwt diolch i beirianeg fwy clyfar byth a ddygodd y diwydiant creu haearn i fan arall, gan adael natur i adennill y Ceunant. Diolch byth cafodd y coed ffawydd oedd yn weddill, eu hachub rhag y fwyell, diolch i ymylon serth y cwm, ac erbyn hyn maen nhw'n ffynnu unwaith eto, yn gymaint eu bod nhw nawr yn rhan o Warchodfa Natur Leol. Dewch, dilynwch fi, ac fe ddangosaf i chi'r arwyddion sicr o orffennol creu haearn y Ceunant. Ond dyma rybudd i chi, ni adawaf i'ch math chi ddistrywio fy nghoetir fyth eto. Cadwch at y llwybrau ac ni wnafeich arwain ar gyfeiliorn, rwy'n addo.

Goblins in the Gorge?

The Gorge has such a magical atmosphere it's no surprise that it is a place of many myths & legends. The name 'Puck' has its roots in Celtic culture, the word 'pwca' being the Welsh version. A pwca is a fairy or goblin that is able to change its shape, taking on the appearance of a range of different animals. If you meet one on the trail be good to it, because it is said that they can bring you good luck or bad fortune!

Coblynnod yn y Ceunant?

Mae awyrgylch mor hudol yn y ceunant, felly nid yw'n syndod ei fod yn lle sy'n llawn chwedlau. Mae'r enw 'Pwca' â'i wreiddiau'n ddwfn yn niwylliant y Celtiaid. Pwca yw tylwythen deg neu goblyn sydd yn medru newid ei siâp, gan ymddangos fel gwahanol fathau o anifeiliaid. Os dowch chi ar draws un ar y llwybr, byddwn yn garedig iddo, am mai'r gred yw y gall ddod â lwc dda i chi.... neu anffawd!

O Frynmawr

Start at Clydach South Car Park on Station Road, Clydach.

From the entrance to the car park walk south west along Station Road towards the village and after approximately 50M take the road to the right and go down the hill towards the river.

After approximately 75M you will come to a stone bridge that crosses the River Clydach. Cross the bridge and go through the gate on the left. Follow this road for a further 75M until you come to an iron bridge on your left.

1. Smart's Bridge

This beautifully constructed iron bridge is dated 1824. It was originally built to carry a tramroad, probably intended as a link between the ironworks and the Clydach Railroad.

Cross the bridge and the ruins of the former Clydach Ironworks are before you.

2. Clydach Ironworks

The romantic and peaceful ruins of the Clydach Ironworks that you see before you today are a world apart from the fire-breathing industrial monster that would have confronted you some 200 years ago. Established by the Clydach Ironworks Company in 1793, the industrial development was typical of the coke-fired blast furnaces producing cast iron across the Heads of the Valleys in the latter part of the 18th century.

Take the path to the right of the ironworks and go up the slope along the route of a former tramroad. Turn right onto Dan Y Coed Road and after approximately 200M take the turning on the right and follow the road to the end. Go left at the end of the road taking the grassy path behind the houses.

Just after a small bridge with metal railings you have the choice to take a detour to explore Cwm Pwca (not to be missed!)

3. Cwm Pwca

It is said that Shakespeare once visited the Clydach Gorge and in doing so was inspired to write 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', hence the name of this trail - 'Cwm Pwca' (Puck's Valley). Myth or reality, if you take the detour you will soon find out for yourself the reason why. There is no more magical place in the whole of the Clydach Gorge.

National Nature Reserve

Llanelly Quarry as it may have

As you go up the slope you are walking through one of the best examples of a native Beech woodland in western Britain, one of the main reasons the area has been designated as a National Nature Reserve.

In front of you at the top of the slope is Llanelly Quarry. Take time out here to enjoy the spectacular views across the Clydach Gorge.
Walk up the road for approximately 100M and bear left onto the cycle track if you would like a closer view of the quarry. Or, to continue, bear right along the cycle track.

5. Llanelly Quarry

Llanelly Quarry was originally established to supply lime to the Clydach Ironworks in the valley below. As you pass in front of the quarry the path you are on now was once the route of the Merthyr Tredegar and Abergavenny Railway. Today it's Route 46 on the National Cycle Network.

6. Merthyr Tredegar and Abergavenny Railway

What a spectacular railway journey this would have been. The line through the Gorge was set at one of steepest gradients on the British Railway network and as a result trains running downhill were restricted to 25 mph!

Walk along the former track bed as far as the 'Gelli-Felen' Tunnels and then take the path off to the right. Follow the cycle route around the hillside and just past a stone cottage take the 'Cwm Pwca' way-marked path to the right that descends steeply down the valley side, taking care as you go!

7. Devil's Bridge

So named because the water is said to have worn away the rock below it to create a devil-like image. Can you spot it?

Walk over the bridge and follow the path up the slope. Go through the A465 underpass and keep following the path up the slope until you reach Main Road. Walk down the road for a further 300M, passing the former Hafod Inn immediately on your right.

8. Blackrock Limeworks

On the left hand side of the road are a bank of limekilns that were once part of the Blackrock Limeworks, which included a large quarry set into the hillside above you.

Continue to take the 'Cwm Pwca' way-marked path all the way down the gorge, returning to Dan Y Coed Road via the footbridge over the A465. Then retrace your steps back to Clydach South Car Park.

We hope you enjoyed your walk and will want to

Dechreuwch ym Maes Parcio De Clydach ar Heol yr orsaf, Clydach.

O fynedfa'r maes parcio cerddwch i'r de-orllewin ar hyd Heol yr orsaf tuag at y pentref, ac ar ôl tua 50m dilynwch yr heol i'r dde ac ewch i lawr y bryn tuag at yr afon.

Ar ôl tua 75m fe ddowch i bont garreg sy'n croesi afon Clydach.
Croeswch y bont ac ewch drwy'r giât ar y chwith. Dilynwch yr heol hon am 75m pellach tan i chi ddod at bont haearn ar eich chwith.

1. Pont Smart

Mae'r bont haearn, hardd yn dyddio o 1824. Cafodd ei hadeiladu'n wreiddiol i gario dramffordd, yn ôl pob tebyg fel cyswll rhwyng y gwaith haearn a Rheilffordd Clydach.

Croeswch y bont ac o'ch blaen fe welwch weddillion hen waith haearn Clydach.

2. Gwaith Haearn Clydach

Mae adfeilion rhamantus a heddychlon Gwaith Haearn Clydach y gwelwch o'ch blaenau heddiu ymhell iawn o'r anghenfil diwydiannol a anadlai dan rhyw 200 mlynedd yn ôl. Roedd y datblygiad diwydiannol a sefydlwyd gan Gwmni Gwaith Haearn Clydach ym 1793, yn nodweddiadol o'r ffrwnseisi chwyth a daniwyd â chols i gynhyrchu haearn bwrw ledled Blaenau'r Cymoedd tuag at ddiwedd y 18fed ganrif.

Dilynwch y llwybr ar ochr dde y gwaith haearn ac ewch i fyny'r llethr ar hyd hen lwybr dramffordd gynt. Trowch i'r dde ac ymunwch â Heol Dan y coed ac ar ôl tua 200m trowch i'r dde a dilynwch yr heol hyd at y diwedd. Ewch i'r chwith ar ddiwedd yr heol gan ddilyn y llwybr glaswelltog y tu ôl i'r tai.

Ychydig ar ôl y bont fach â rheiliau metel mae gennych ddewis i fynd allan o'ch ffordd i grwydro Cwm Pwca (bachwch y cyfle!)

3. Cwm Pwca

Dywedir bod Shakespeare wedi ymweld â Cheunant Clydach ar un adeg, ac ar ôl hynny cafodd ei ysbrydoli i ysgrifennu
'Breuddwyd Nos Gwyl Iffan', oherwydd hynny daw enw'r llwybr hwn - 'Cwm Pwca' (Puck's Valley). Chwedl neu realiti, wrth ddilyn y llwybr dargyfeirio fe welwch y rheswm drosodd chi'ch hun.
Nid oes lle mwy hudol ar y ddaear na Cheunant Clydach yn ei gyfanrwydd.

Gan ddechreuedd unwaith eto i'r bont cadwch i'r dde ac i fyny llethr serth. Rydych unwaith eto yn dilyn y llwybr, 'plân ar oleddf', hen dramffordd gynt!

4. Gwarchodfa Natur Genedlaethol Cwm Clydach

Wrth i chi fynd i fyny'r llethr rydych yn cerdded trwy un o'r enghreifftiau gorau o'r coetiroedd ffawydd brodorol yng ngorllewin Prydain, un o'r rhesymau pennaf y cafodd yr ardal ei dynodi'n Warchodle Natur Genedlaethol.

O'ch blaen ar ben y llethr fe welwch Chwarel Llanelli. Cymerwch eich amser yma i fwynhau'r golygfeydd trawiadol ar draws Ceunant Clydach. Cerddwch i fyny'r heol am tua 100m ac i'r chwith gan ymuno â'r llwybr beicio os hoffech gipolwg agosach ar y chwarel. Neu, i barhau, ewch i'r dde ar hyd y llwybr beicio.

5. Chwarel Llanelli

Sefydlwyd Chwarel Llanelli yn wreiddiol i gyflenwi calch i Waith Haearn Clydach yn y cwm islaw. Wrth i chi fynd heibio o flaen y chwarel, roedd y llwybr yr ydych yn sefyll arno nawr, yn llwybr Rheilffordd Merthyr Tredegar a'r Fenni ar un adeg. Heddiw, Llwybr 46 ydych ar y Rhwydwaith Beicio Cenedlaethol.

6. Rheilffordd Merthyr, Tredegar a'r Fenni

Byddai'r siwrnai ar y rheilffordd wedi bod yn drawiadol iawn.
Cafodd y llinell rheilffordd drwy'r ceunant ei osod ar un o'r llethrau mwyaf serth ar rwydwaith Rheilffordd Prydain ac o ganlyniad cafodd y trenau oedd yn teithio i lawr y llethr eu cyfyngu i 25 myl!

Cerddwch ar hyd gwyl'r trac gynt cyn belled â Thwneli 'Gellifelen' ac yna dilynwch y llwybr ar y dde. Dilynwch y llwybr beicio o amgylch y llethr ac ychydig heibio bwrth carreg dilynwch y llwybr sy'n dangos Cwm Pwca i'r dde, mae'n disgyn yn serth i lawr ymyl y cwm, felly cymerwch ofall!

7. Pont y Diafol

Cafodd ei enwi felly am fod y dŵr, yn ôl pob sôn wedi treulio'r graig islaw i greu delwedd fel diafol. Fedrwc chi ei gweld?

Cerddwch dros y bont a dilynwch y llwybr i fyny'r llethr. Ewch drwy danffordd yr A465 a dal ati i ddilyn y llwybr i fyny'r llethr tan i chi gyrraedd yr Heol Fawr. Cerddwch i lawr yr heol am 300m pellach, gan fynd heibio'r Hafod Inn sydd ar eich ochr dde.

8. Gwaith Calch Blackrock

Ar ochr chwith yr heol mae yna fanc o odyrnau calch a oedd unwaith yn rhan o Waith Calch Blackrock, a oedd yn cynnwys chwarel fawr yn ymyl y llechwedd uwch eich pen.

Dilynwch y llwybr sy'n dangos 'Cwm Pwca' yr holl ffordd i lawr y ceunant, gan ddechreuedd i Heol Dan y coed dros y bompren dros yr A465. Yna dychwelwch i Faes Parcio De Clydach.

Gobeithiwn eich bod wedi mwynhau eich taith ac y byddwch am grwydro mwy o'n Llwybrau Trysor yn Nhirwedd Ddiwydiannol Blaenafon, Safle Treftadaeth y Byd.
